The Project Management Game – how brilliant are you?

Project name:	Work package title:
brillianCRM	2.3.5 Functional Requirements

Work package description:

The functional requirement includes the developed realization concept created by the supplier. It describes the realization of the requirements specification of the customer. The requirements are detailed and specified; moreover it includes a rough concept, and further general information of the planned system.

The functional requirement serves as an agreement between supplier and customer and has to be complete and consistent.

Aim of work package:

Content of the functional requirement is:

- Aims which should be achieved with the product (must/ shall/have criteria)
- Product use
- Product overview
- A description of the product landscape
- Product functionalities
- Processing product data from the system
- Product achievements
- Functional and non-functional requirements
- A testing description
- Development environment
- Special requirements for the system

Predecessor:	Successor:
Migration concept	Development in India

Duration:	Effort in man days (MD):
30 days	30 MD

Responsible person(s):

Project Manager,